Code of Conduct

❖ Parents are expected to bring their children to school on time and pick them up promptly after the end of the corresponding classes. Neither baby-sitting nor child supervision is available after school hours. It is the responsibility of the parents to make proper transportation arrangements to transport their children to and from the school. Students and teachers are in the school for one basic purpose: To promote the Islamic and educational development of students. To accomplish the goal, each student is expected to meet the following disciplinary objectives:

- Come to the class prepared each week with school supplies, books, and completed assignments.
- Make no disruptive noise or gestures.
- Must not leave seat or room without permission.
- Treat others and the property of others with respect.
- Ask and wait for permission before speaking.

❖ Students are expected to come to the class on time. The school expects the cooperation of the parents. In case of absence, the student is expected to contact the teacher to find out all the missed assignments and for arranging possible make-ups.

❖ Any unexcused absence will result in a zero on the missed work.

❖ Students who have 6 or more weeks of absence during the semester will not be eligible for any award or gifts at the end of the year.

❖ Students who missed their final exam when given will not be eligible for report card.

❖ New students must be present at least four weeks to be eligible for any award.

❖ All students are expected to dress modestly and apply the Islamic dress code. Boys are not expected to come wear shorts above the knee, while the girls are expected to cover their heads all the time during school and all the time in the Mosque.

❖ No running, shouting, or noise will be tolerated In the Masjid.

❖ No children are allowed to be outside of the Mosque by themselves. They will need direct supervision of either their teachers or parents/guardians.

❖ No parents are allowed to be in the classroom with their child during teaching sessions.

❖ No student will be allowed to leave the classroom early unless he/she has written note from the parent, with the exact time for the child to leave.

.....Fill; cut along this line and give it to the class teacher ASAP.....
